

Do not take any action that will lessen the Indiana no call list. Since the inception my calls have went from around four per day to one per week. Unless you can change the rules to get rid of the other one call per week, please take this opportunity to stay out of the no call business. Thanks!